

Church Meeting - 10/8/19

Pastor R discussed the final But Why lesson from the series. The lesson was "But why can't I just mind my own business?"

Pastor's Report: Congregational additions and losses were discussed, as well as general congregational information.

Principal's Board: School is back and student activities are underway again. The students have sung at their churches; cross country, volleyball, and flag football have begun; Grandparent's day took place; and vision and hearing testing has happened. Mr. Livingston attended the local Principal's conference. The first CSA meeting took place. The Accreditation plan is moving forward with the report to be submitted in February with a site visit in March.

School Board Report: School policy and teacher compensation is currently being reviewed. Long term items (parking lot, sign, technology, furnaces) are being investigated and planned for the coming budget cycles. Retirement of Mrs. Barb Knobloch was accepted and the call process for her replacement will begin soon.

Secretary's Report: Report accepted as printed.

Evangelism: This year's Christmas postcards are being developed and will be ready to send for service. There will be 11 new mover bags this month.
